

PERKINS III NONTRADITIONAL LEADERSHIP DATA
2004-2005 (FY 2005)

NUMBER OF ACTIVITIES	NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS FEMALE                      MALE
1. Increasing enrollment and completion of students in nontraditional programs _____ Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____
2. Assisting special populations to meet four Perkins Core Indicators of Performance _____ Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____
3. Teaching students about All Aspects of the Industry _____ Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____
4. Linking nontraditional secondary programs and nontraditional postsecondary technical education _____ Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____
5. Improving academic and technical skills of students enrolled in courses preparing them for nontraditional careers _____ Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____

NUMBER OF ACTIVITIES	NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS
	FEMALE	MALE
6. Activities for adults and school dropouts to ensure completion of secondary programs that prepare for nontraditional careers or entrance to nontraditional postsecondary courses _____  Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____
7. Developing work-based experiences for nontraditional careers _____  Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____
8. Developing liaisons with business, industry, Community agencies, parents, & others to encourage student participation in nontraditional training and employment _____  Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____
9. Professional development to improve ability of counselors, technical, and/or academic instructors to recruit and retain students to programs that prepare for nontraditional training and employment _____  Title of activity or activities:	_____	_____
10. Other activities – please describe & Give title of activity or activities: _____	_____	_____
TOTALS	_____	_____